A person’s age is determined from their birth year subtracted from this year.
The Role attribute can contain either the role an actor played or ‘Director’ if the person was the director.